Dear Parishioners,
Thank you for listening to my talk last week about the Planned Giving program and our coming Jubilee. I hope that many of you will become committed to the preparations for the Jubilee and also the Planned Giving. Envelopes for the new year of the Planned Giving are available in the foyer today. Please pick up your box of envelopes as you go. If you would like to join the program, please see the helpers at the table in the foyer and fill out a blue pledge card.
This weekend we have six new volunteers being commissioned as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. In the Gospel today, Jesus tells us that his body and blood is "the bread which comes down from heaven" and that whoever eats this bread "will have eternal life". How blessed then, are those that bring this bread to us, either in the Mass or to the homes of the sick and elderly? Blessed indeed! Please pray for our six new ministers and all those who serve the Body of Christ in this way.—Fr. Sunny

Sacrament of Confirmation 2017

On behalf of the Sacramental team, I congratulate all the candidates who received their Sacrament of Confirmation last Saturday. May this journey deepen your relationship with God. May you continue to grow in the Holy Spirit so that you can live your life in the fullness of God's grace.

We thank all the parents, families and sponsors who supported these children during the whole process. You have played a major role in the lives of these children. May we continue to inspire our young ones to live their lives in the path of righteousness by the way we live our faith.
