A Happy and Peaceful Christmas Season

Dear Parishioners,

The momentous event of the birth of Jesus at Bethlehem is with us once more: the world rejoices. Every birth is a sign of hope for the future and a token of joy at the miracle of new life. The birth of Mary's child includes all that but much more – it's the dawn of salvation. Here at Infant Jesus parish we wish to thank all who have helped in so many ways to give meaning to our Christmas liturgies; the volunteers who work so hard and to whom we are so grateful. We thank all those who have sent gifts, cards and good wishes, to both the Carmelite and the Parish community. We invite everyone to join in the celebration of New Year's Eve, with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament followed by a time for sharing afterwards. On behalf of the Carmelite Community we wish you all a very happy and blessed Christmas season and we pray that you will enjoy the peace of Christ in your homes. We also remember our families who undertake travel during the holiday period, that you may do so safely.

May the peace of Christ be with you all.

— Fr. Sunny, Fr Tadgh and the Community
