

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today's First Reading and Gospel share the sense of God's invitation to a lavish banquet. A takeaway from the First Reading (Is 25: 6-10) is that every human life is lived in the hope of an invitation to the 'banquet' of eternal life. The parable of the Wedding Banquet that makes up the Gospel, (Matt 22:1-14) is a version of a parable that appears elsewhere (cf. Luke 14:15-24). Matthew has made the parable into an allegory of salvation history.

The wedding feast represents the fullness of salvation, the bridegroom the Son of God. The servants sent one after the other to issue invitations represent, first, the prophets sent to Israel in the Old Testament, then Christian missionaries. These go out first to Israel once more. When again Israel fails to respond, they are told to invite those 'on the crossroads'—the Gentiles.

The final scene where the king notices a guest not wearing a wedding garment and orders him to be cast out, brings the allegory to a close. The feast now becomes the last judgment, when the mixture of good and bad in the Christian community will be sorted. You don't have to be good to get into the Kingdom but once a member of the community you need to be opened to being changed by grace. The required 'wedding garment' is grace in action. God's graciousness and generosity should not be an excuse for complacency. Our lack of cooperation can exclude us from the banquet. The concluding comment uses typical Semitic idioms: so the 'many' are in fact 'all' who are called, the 'few' means 'not everyone' is 'chosen' to persevere to the end.

Pope Francis published his latest Encyclical 'FRATELLI TUTTI' last Sunday 4 October. It is dedicated to promoting solidarity among all people and all religions. It concludes: "Come Holy Spirit, show us your beauty, reflected in all the peoples of the earth, so that we may discover anew how all are important and all are necessary, different faces of one humanity that God so loves. Amen" —Blessings, Greg

Garden FUNraiser

To help everyone get behind this parish community effort, we have created a gmail account—gardenfunraiser@gmail.com— so that you can easily make contact to ask questions, make suggestions, arrange collection of pots or potting mix etc. Can we please ask you to help us, by sending us an email to let us know that you are potting plants or making items for the Funraiser? This will help us to know what support we have going on out in the parish community. Thank you so much!

What you can do now:

- Take cuttings or divide plants from your garden and pot them now—so they have plenty of time to grow
- Follow our Garden Funraiser page on Facebook, for ideas on ways to add fun to your potting attempts
- If you're crafty or can sew, start thinking about garden related ideas—and check out our Garden Funraiser FB page for ideas too
- Ask friends and family to help out - clever gardeners and crafty people are everywhere
- Drop off unwanted plastic pots / hanging baskets / interesting glass vases or jars / old terrariums / unwanted garden items to the parish office
- Donate pretty but unwanted teacups, jugs and interesting china pieces that could be used as pots for miniature succulent gardens.

How we can help you now

- We already have some donations of pots and potting mix—email gardenfunraiser@gmail.com and let us know what you need, or pop into the office to collect some.
- Pick up some pop sticks, so you can put names to your potted plants or write the names onto the pots with permanent marker.
