

Dear Parishioners,

This week I would like to welcome Josephine McManus and offer her my grateful thanks, on behalf of the parish, for accepting the leadership role of Hospitality Co-ordinator. Our ministries and groups have run smoothly over many, many years because of the commitment of those who lead them. Annette Nathanielsz helped to form the Hospitality Ministry and has cared for those in the Ministry for the last 12 years. Josephine has had a wonderful mentor and I feel sure that she will fill the role of co-ordinator very well. Our ministry and group leaders need our support and so I ask you to pray for them in their work, especially as we head into the period of Lent and Eastertide.

I would also like to announce the good news that our new Youth Co-ordinator, Emma Passmore, will be extending her role and working two full days for the parish. This will give Emma time to extend her youth programme and allow for extra gatherings and activities. She has an exciting programme lined up for 2015 and so I urge you to get involved. Emma would especially like some young adults (18years+) to join her as mentors for the younger ones. Why not give her a call? - Fr. Sunny

LENTEN PROGRAMME 2015

Arise!

OPTION 1.

This beautiful programme from the Diocese of Wollongong includes Gospel Reflections that invite us to deepen our understanding of Jesus' love for us and to grasp anew the hope his Resurrection brings us. We are challenged to "arise" from our torpor, grasp his outstretched hand and accompany him on his journey through passion to death and resurrection.

We are offering three opportunities to join a small group:

Wednesday afternoon at 1.30pm

Hosted by Joanne Byrde in her home.

Thursday evening at 7.30pm

Hosted by Fr. Sunny in the library.

Tuesday morning at 10am

Hosted by Tracy Hardman in the parish centre

Please put your name down for the group you would like to join, on the A-frame in the foyer.

"The Kingdom of God is Near"

OPTION 2.

Heartbeat Resources presents this Lectio Divina resource for plumbing the depths of the Scriptures & Prayer during Lent. These sessions will be facilitated by leaders experienced in this style of prayer. It involves listening to and reflecting on the Gospel readings, times of silence and the opportunity to share your thoughts if you wish.

Thursday morning 9.30am - 11am

Hosted by the IJ Faith Study group in the parish centre.

LITTLE BLACK BOOKS AND LITTLE PURPLE BOOKS FOR LENT

The little black (purple for children) daily reflection books for Lent have arrived and are available from the piety stall in the church or the parish office. At only $4.00 each, these little reflections are a great way to do something different in Lent and take only 5 minutes each day.

LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD

Pope Francis is again asking all Catholics in the Archdiocese of Perth to respond to a survey on marriage and family. The survey's 30 questions address how the family is supported by both the Church and society and asks questions on marriage, divorce, same-sex attraction, parenting and other challenges that affect contemporary family life. Participants are free to answer as little or as much of the survey as they wish. Archbishop Costelloe is particularly keen that Catholics who no longer practice the Faith, or those who feel on the edges of the Church, are made aware of the survey and have the opportunity to respond. The survey can be found online at www.surveymonkey.com/s/PerthFamily/, can be downloaded from www.perthcatholic.org.au or copies can be made available through the parish office. The deadline for responses is Thursday 12 February. Further info: 9220 5900.
