

Dear Parishioners,

What a wonderful celebrations we had last Saturday with our two Confirmation Masses, when 72 of our parish children and one adult were Confirmed into the faith. Fr. Greg Carroll gave an inspiring homily, reminding the children that the large crowds were there for each one of them and that they should feel secure in the commitment of the whole parish towards helping them to grow in their faith. Fr. Greg was supported by the wonderful music from our youth choir, the careful attention to the liturgical environment and the willing help of all the liturgical ministries. I would especially like to acknowledge the extra effort of Joshua Liew, who flew into Perth especially to be able to join the youth choir for this very special celebration. Such commitment is inspiring to me and I would like to thank everyone involved for their planning, preparation and participation in the Masses.

I welcome today the Little Sisters of the Poor, who have come to speak to us about their ongoing work with the elderly in their aged-care facility at Glendalough. Aged-care is readily available in Australia and for this we should be very thankful; it is not the case in all parts of the world. These dedicated religious women bring a wonderful spiritual dimension to their aged care facility and work not for a salary, but to serve the "little ones" –those who can no longer care for themselves - as Jesus asks us to do. Please listen to their talk today with open hearts and be prepared to give generously as you leave Mass today.– Fr. Sunny

We are being asked as Catholics to be attentive constantly to the needs of refugees. Copies of his short message is available in the Bulletin stands in the foyer.

HUNG'S LAST WISH

Many of you maybe aware of the story of our parishioners, Hung & Tracy. As young parents, they were working hard to establish a small business in Morley, raising their two young boys and awaiting the arrival of a new baby, when Hung was diagnosed with cancer. The last four years have been a hard journey, with the birth of their new baby, rounds of cancer treatments and the loss of their business due to Hung's inability to work. Through it all, Hung has kept smiling and has been an inspiration to many of us. Now, the cancer has spread to his bones and the family know their time left together is limited. Friends have established an appeal to help the family and to make Hung's last wish come true. Please go to www.gofundme.com/hungslastwish if you would like to lend your support to the family.
