

Dear Parishioners,

This Thursday is a special Feast day for we Carmelites, when we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and give thanks to her for her guidance and protection of the whole Carmelite family throughout the world. We friars generally try and celebrate the day with the Carmelite sisters, either at Nedlands or Gelorup, but here at the parish some willing volunteers will have a special celebration for the parish children, with a celebration cake and some fun activities and a little gift to take home. Please encourage your children to come along and learn a little more about our Blessed Mother.

This past week we have seen the paths laid for the Children and Infants memorial in the Columbarium gardens. As with the construction of the Columbarium itself, progress with the memorial has been slow as the committee carefully consider the best result for our parish, but now everything is ready to go. The memorial will be officially opened by Archbishop Costelloe on Sunday September 27th after the 9.30am Mass. More information about the plans for the memorial will be available soon. – Fr. Sunny
