

Dear Parishioners,

Last week I spoke to you about the role we all have to play, as Christians, in the work of the Church, through agencies such as Catholic Mission. Today we will hear from someone closely involved in the work of Catholic Mission as they share their experience of what it means to "go out and share the Good News" in a more hands-on role. Please listen with a heart open to God and respond in whatever way He leads you. There are so many in the world who are awaiting our generous response.

Also this week, I urge you to sign up for one of the adult faith opportunities coming up soon in our parish. With courses being offered right here in our parish, we really have no excuse not to take part and benefit from learning more about our faith.—Fr Sunny

BROTHER JAMES' POETRY BOOKLET—IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Due to privacy issues, we need to recall all copies of Br. James' poetry booklets. If you had purchased a copy, please return it directly to Fr. Sunny or Fr Tadgh, or to the parish office. Cost of the booklet will be refunded. We regret any inconvenience caused. Thank you.

CATHOLIC MISSION APPEAL 3/4 OCTOBER THIS WEEKEND AT ALL MASSES

"...Let the little children come to me..."

Your generous donation to Catholic Mission's Propagation of the Faith Appeal this weekend is your link to the urgent work of our Catholic missionaries in protecting the rights and well-being of vulnerable and suffering children caught in the midst of poverty and civil war in developing countries around the world. We should prayerfully remember that it is usually children who are the first victims of social injustice and political expediency even in our own country. As Pope Francis' official overseas missionary aid agency, the Catholic Mission envelope offers you a choice for your missionary offerings: Give to support our community development programs (because you need a tax deductibility receipt), or give to support our pastoral, faith-based programs (because you don't require a tax deductible receipt). Or both: nourish the body as well as the soul.
