

Dear parishioners,

This Sunday at 9.30am Mass, we warmly welcome Jesmyne Hodgson, Ashley Hayson and Cecelia Chung who have been exploring the teachings of the Catholic Church in our parish RCIA program for several months. During the Rite of the Acceptance, they will express their formal acknowledgement of their desire to be baptised into the faith, in front of the whole community. Please keep these three catechumens and their sponsors in your prayers as they continue their journey toward Baptism at the Easter Vigil.

Last Sunday after 9.30am Mass, I met a catholic couple from England. They were here to visit their friends. They took personal interest in participating at Masses in different parishes around the Archdiocese of Perth. They told me that their aim was to have an overall idea of how the Catholic Church is living the faith here in WA. They made a personal remark to me: "We have visited many places and churches, and we would like to put Infant Jesus Church at the top of our list for the quality of worship, choir, participation from people etc.." This personal remark from a visiting couple should make the whole community at Infant Jesus proud. At the same time, we should realize that this remark doesn't mean that there is no room for improvement! - Fr. Sunny
