

Dear parishioners,

This week we have the final Scrutiny, the last step for our five Elect and three Candidates before they are initiated fully into the Sacramental life of the Church. Please pray constantly for them over these last weeks.

Next Wednesday, 20th March at 7.30pm we have our Second Rite of Reconciliation here in our parish. I urge you to come along and join in this communal rite of penance and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. No matter how sinful we feel we are, God is simply waiting for us to come to him so that he can cover us with his love and forgiveness. God's willingness to forgive even the worst of our sins is a central message in today's Gospel. The woman caught in adultery was dragged before the crowd and made to stand where all could see and judge her. Jesus alone averted his eyes from her shame. He looked up at her only when there was no one left to accuse her. He refused to accuse her and sent her away with a simple message: "Do not sin again." He offered the woman a chance of a new beginning and this is what we also are offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation – an opportunity to leave our past sins behind and become someone new. Who could refuse such loving charity? I hope that all of you will accept this offer. – Fr. Sunny

Personal Advocacy really needs you!

Enabling people with intellectual disabilities to lead full and valued lives.

You are invited to consider joining the Personal Advocacy Wednesday morning community of friendship. We meet in Morley from 10-12noon, once a week during school terms. We are in need of a friend for a very special lady who has been in our program for many years. She loves coming to Mass and to the PA group and needs an advocate to ensure this can continue to happen. Contact us and come to an information session and find out if this ministry is for you.

You will probably discover that the program is much deeper spiritually than you imagined and you will discover that the program nurtures your own faith whilst your intention was to help another. Contact Jocelyn or Robyn on Ph 9275 5388 or admin@paswa.org.au

Retired Teachers Mission Outreach

You will all be delighted to hear that the teacher who has stepped forward to support this outreach by either teaching English or Maths to one child - for one hour - once a week and gifting half the lesson donation to this outreach, is also a professional photographer. He has offered to donate half the amount to be paid to him from wedding photos he took for a couple's special day to the Retired Teachers Mission Fund! He prefers to remain anonymous.

This to me is another one of God's miracles. I always remember what a priest once told me which I have found to be true on several occasions - "God is a God of surprises."

This bible quote applies to every Christian wanting to do God's work - "the Lord Himself goes before you and will be with you" Deuteronomy 31

Thank you to those who are spreading the word about this new outreach as word of mouth is always the best way of personal advertising. We need teachers, students who need catch-up lessons and general helpers. It will take time for this new venture to grow as we do what we can and wait patiently for growth to take hold.

Please take a flyer from the foyer near the Project Compassion Display today. Maggie Box.

CAN YOU HELP? The Parish is hoping to install a much needed air-conditioner in the Library and would appreciate it if someone could help with the installation. Please contact Fr Sunny if you are able to assist.

No more aluminium cans, thank you.

Sadly, after many, many years of collecting aluminium cans to raise money for Fr. Luis' charities, our much loved Charlie Sharman has passed away. His family are unable to continue his work and so, with regret, have asked that we advise that we will no longer accept aluminium cans here at the parish.

On behalf of the Sharman family, heartfelt thanks for all who have helped Charlie by bringing in their cans over the years.
