

Dear brothers and sisters,

The theme that unites today's First Reading (Is 55:6-9) and Gospel (Matt 20:1-16a) is the unlimited generosity of God. Isaiah insists on the difference between God's ways and our ways, God's thoughts and human thoughts. People think that 'God has probably given up on me; I'm no longer worth bothering about.' But this imprisons God in a false image caused by projecting human patterns upon God.

Today's Gospel is a parable about 'the Kingdom of Heaven': The vineyard owner knows what people need to live each day and so he pays everyone enough for each day no matter how long they have worked. He sees the workers as a community. He is concerned for the welfare of each of them. God, the parable tells us, is not only just but is overwhelmingly generous.

Everything is from God. Everything is freely given. Everything is to be shared by everyone. We are all recipients of God's boundless generosity. We need time to let this sink through quiet, personal prayer and to appreciate how much we have been given. We need time to allow ourselves to be loved by God and time to be grateful. Aligning ourselves with this view of God means allowing the Kingdom to transform our lives, our relationships, and our world.

Parish Vision

Recently the Parish Pastoral Council spent some time formulating a Strategy Statement to give direction for our parish over the next three years. This Statement has been shared with ministry coordinators and I will now introduce it to you week by week.

Our Vision is: To be a safe, joyful community of missionary disciples who know Christ and make him known to others. This is a vision that I personally am committed to. It explains the priorities we will have over the next few years and the direction I would like the parish to take. The thinking behind this comes from Pope Francis and his predecessors and is explained well in Divine Renovation by James Mallon.

We are called to be disciples: people that the Spirit has brought to an encounter with God's transformative, generous love in Christ Jesus. We allow ourselves to be loved and to grow in that love of God. In our lives and prayer, by our by hearing God's word and celebrating his sacraments. We are life-long learners in divine love. So we joyfully welcome others, celebrate our faith and invite others to share the love we have received. There is an energy and joy in our faith that unites and propels us into the future.—Blessings, Greg

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

UPDATE: As part of our working together with Bedford Parish this year the RCIA programme will be a combined one for the two parishes and take place in Bedford.

We now have four candidates for the Catechumenate. We have received one interest to be a sponsor and are looking for more sponsors to walk this faith journey with these young men and women. The role of the sponsor is to befriend and accompany each the candidate and to help them understand how we live our Christian faith in the Catholic Church. If you are interested in taking on this role please speak to one of the priests after mass or call the parish office.

FEAST OF ST VINCENT DE PAUL

Next Sunday the 27th September is the feast day of St Vincent de Paul. To celebrate this important occasion, members of the Morley/Dianella Conference will attend the 9.30am Mass.

We appreciate your generous support in the past with both gifts of food and money to help the poor and homeless in our community. As we could not undertake our normal winter collection this year, may I please encourage you to be generous with your support to both the poor boxes at the rear of the church and the food collection in the foyer of the Church.—Lou Daily, President
