

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today's readings concern the right attitude to adopt towards the future. Matthew's Gospel devotes a long section to this theme, culminating in the three parables that make up chapter 25. Today's Gospel (Matt 25:1-13) is the first of these parables. Key phrases are 'be prepared' and 'stay alert'.

The parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids is a story which is in some ways obscure as it is unclear what all the marriage customs of the time were. For example: it is unlikely that unaccompanied young women would head out trying to buy oil at midnight. Anyway, as part of the wedding ceremonies there is a night procession from the bride's house to the banquet at the groom's house. As part of this the bridesmaids carry torches. But some of them have not provided enough oil for their torches and so can't fulfil their role. Both the wise and the foolish bridesmaids fall asleep. The difference is that the wise have made sure to have sufficient oil to rekindle their lamps when they are roused, while the foolish have not thought to be prepared. Their absence means they can't participate when the tardy bridegroom appears.

For Matthew, this parable is an allegory for life in the Church during the time of waiting for the return of the Lord (the 'Bridegroom'). The five wise and five foolish bridesmaids represent members of the Church who are of mixed quality. The oil represents the kind of good deeds that Jesus commends – 'justice, mercy and faith' (23:23) – which will be illustrated in the parable of the Great Judgment (25:31-46).

The foolish bridesmaids are the kind of believers who cry out, 'Lord, Lord' but have no good works to accompany their confession of faith (7:21-27). The wise may 'sleep' (in death) before the coming of the Lord but when he does come, they will go out to meet him with the 'lamps' of their good works shining (cf. 5:16). This could remind us of the dismissal at the end of mass: 'Go in peace to love and serve the Lord' which is actually a program for living the twin commandments of love of God and love of neighbour (Matt: 22:37-40).

Adore—Daily Advent and Christmas Reflections

In the day-to-day reality of our lives, especially during the busyness of end-of-year activities, it is easy to lose sight of what we are truly preparing for during Advent and celebrating at Christmas—the Incarnation. The magnitude of this event was not lost on the shepherds and the Magi who came to adore the Child who is truly Emmanuel: God-with-us. Inspired by the Shepherds, Magi and our Blessed Mother, this year's reflection book, Adore, provides a wonderful opportunity for us to take a quiet step out of our daily lives and refocus our attention on the Lord in adoration of what he has done for us through his Son. Adore is available from piety stall after Masses and from parish office for $4 a copy. Christmas cards and 2021 Columban calendar are also available.
