

Dear Parishioners,

Today we welcome our families who have children preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation. Bishop Don will confirm the children at two Masses on the afternoon of Saturday 7th September. Please keep these families in your prayers as they bring their children into the fullness of life through the Holy Spirit.

In the last two weeks I have had many funerals. Both our school communities, Chisholm and Infant Jesus, have lost young mothers to cancer this week and you may have read in the paper of the memorial service held here on Sunday for the young boy who lost his life last week on his way to school. It is a very sad time for these families and our community, but I feel privileged to spend time with these parishioners in their sorrow and to see the comfort and hope they draw from their faith and their hope in the resurrection, which we all share, in Christ. - Fr. Sunny

People of God: We are called to holiness

OUR LADY OF THE MISSION PARISH HALL, WHITFORDS – 7.00PM WEDNESDAY 14 AUGUST

Sr Gemma Simmonds CJ, Senior Lecturer in Pastoral and Social Studies and Theology, Heythrop College, University of London

Today we consider some of the personal difficulties we might have to face as disciples. First, there is no part-time discipleship. Our commitment must be wholehearted and complete. We must have a willing attitude that frees us interiorly from all other concerns so that we might be able to follow Christ regardless of our state in life or our occupation. This attitude of commitment comes not merely from our own generosity of heart but from our having been transformed into Christ through faith and baptism.

We may face conflicts when our various allegiances seem to clash. We may have family responsibilities. There are children to raise, elderly parents or infirm relatives to care for. What does discipleship require of us? We all must earn a living. Are we expected to leave our employment to follow Jesus? And if so, what then will we do? All disciples must face the interior struggle caused by the conflict of legitimate responsibilities.

The freedom of which Paul speaks comes with genuine love. If, out of love, we can negotiate successfully these conflicts caused by competing responsibilities, without compromising our total commitment to Christ, we will find a new kind freedom. This is the freedom that enables us to be faithful to both sets of responsibilities according to the proper priority. We will see that commitment to Christ is primary and the circumstances of our lives with the accompanying responsibilities set the parameters within which we live out our commitment. It is not in opposition with these responsibilities or despite them, but by means of or through them that we live out our discipleship. - © Diane Bergant, CSS. www.liturgyhelp.com.au

With flu season upon us once more, it is a good time to remind ourselves of the importance of considering others at the Eucharist and of the Archdiocesan regulations regarding the reception of Holy Communion.

WHEN RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION, YOU ARE ASKED THAT YOU:

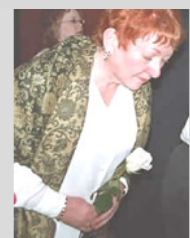

Have bare, clean, empty hands

Do not dip the Host in the cup

Do not drink from the cup, if you are unwell

Give a reverent bow before the Precious Body and before the Precious Blood.

Help Needed to come to Mass

An elderly gentleman who lives very close to the church requires a lift to Mass on Sundays.

The Italian Mass would be preferred, but any Mass he could be brought to would be a blessing.

Please call the office on 9276 8500 if you can help.

A lovely friendly gentleman has moved into his new home in Bassendean and wants to come to the Personal Advocacy Mass and morning tea held on the 3rd Sunday of every month.

His house staff are unable to bring him along. If you are interested in being a Mass buddy for Donald – this means picking him up, being with him for Mass and morning tea and taking him home once a month – could you please contact the Personal Advocacy office, leave your details and we will contact you.
