

Dear Parishioners,

Last Sunday we celebrated the 21st anniversary of the dedication of our church with a wonderful Mass and a sociable gathering at lunch afterwards. It is difficult sometimes, in such a large community, to keep in touch with each other; which is why it is important to come together as a whole community and celebrate who we are. This is certainly what happened last weekend! With nearly three hundred people arriving for lunch, it took a bit of fast thinking and team effort to get extra tables set and extra food served up. I have heard the parable of the loaves and fishes many times, but I have never seen it enacted before my eyes until now! Everyone was seated and served with a minimum of fuss and plenty of cheerful smiles.

I would like to thank Fr. Leo, who came along to concelebrate the Mass and gave us a thought-provoking homily on what being part of community really means. And of course, I deeply thank everyone involved in both the Mass and the preparation and clean up of the lunch. There are simply too many of you to mention by name, but you know who you are and how much you contributed to a truly communal effort. I ask the Lord to continue to bless this community with people such as yourselves.

On Thursday morning at 10.30am in Good Shepherd parish, parishioners of Lockridge and Morley will gather to farewell Margaret Hobbins, a long time Mass-goer and volunteer in both parishes. I know that Fr. Paul particularly appreciated Margaret's many kindnesses and the numerous daily tasks that she carried out for the parish, as well as for the nuns at the Nedlands Carmel and an unknown number of individuals. Many among us will miss her.

Finally, I wish all our fathers, young and old, a very happy Father's Day today. - Fr. Sunny

Happy Father's Day!

Let us praise those fathers who have striven to balance the demands of work, marriage, and children with an honest awareness of both joy and sacrifice. Let us praise those fathers who, lacking a good model for a father, have worked to become a good father.

Let us praise those fathers who by their own account were not always there for their children, but who continue to offer those children, now grown, their love and support. Let us pray for those fathers who have been wounded by the neglect and hostility of their children.

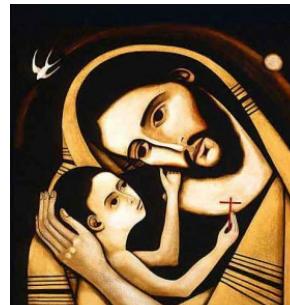

Let us praise those fathers who, despite divorce, have remained in their children's lives. Let us praise those fathers whose children are adopted, and whose love and support has offered healing.

Let us praise those fathers who, as stepfathers, freely chose the obligation of fatherhood and earned their step children's love and respect. Let us praise those fathers who have lost a child to death, and continue to hold the child in their heart.

Let us praise those men who have no children, but cherish the next generation as if they were their own. Let us praise those men who have fathered us in their role as mentors and guides.

Let us praise those men who are about to become fathers; may they openly delight in their children. And let us praise those fathers who have died, but live on in our memory and whose love continues to nurture us.

- Kirk Loadman

God our Father,
in your wisdom and love you made all things.
Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honour them always with a spirit of profound respect.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Condolences from Fr. Gerard:

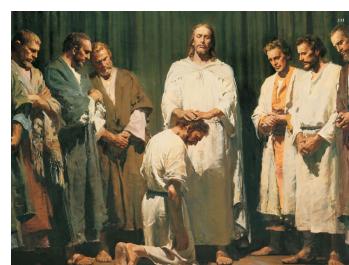

"Could you please express my condolences to Margaret's family and to the Parish family. She was like St. Therese, 'Love at the heart of the Church'“ She spent herself in the service of God and of others. I will be celebrating Mass for the repose of her soul. I feel, as the Gospel puts it so beautifully, that she will have many friends to welcome her into the tents of eternity". Peace, Gerard

ARCHBISHOP TIMOTHY COSTELLOE, SDB "Encountering Christ: The call of Vatican II" 7.00pm, Tuesday 24 September at 7.00pm

Our parish is very privileged to be hosting this talk, the last of four talks on the important documents which came out of the 2nd Vatican council and what they mean to us as lay people or consecrated people in the Church today. It will be the first time the Archbishop has visited our parish. As the previous talks have attracted large crowds, we will be holding the talk in the church. After the talk you can discuss what you have heard over a cup of tea or coffee in the parish centre.

PLEASE MARK YOUR DIARY NOW.

This will be a great opportunity for the people to gather around their bishop and listen to his teaching.
