

SECOND VATICAN ECUMENICAL COUNCIL

On 11 October we celebrated the 60th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council by St John XXIII, whose feast day is also 11 October. The Synod of Bishops was instituted by St. Paul VI on Sept. 15, 1965, responding to requests made by many council fathers. The purpose of the Synod was and remains to prolong, in the life and mission of the Church, the spirit of the Second Vatican Council, as well as to foster in the People of God the living appropriation of its teaching, in the awareness that that Council represented "the great grace from which the Church has benefited in the 20th century" (John Paul II, Apostolic Letter Novo millennio ineunte, Jan. 6, 2001, 57). This task is far from being completed since the reception of the conciliar magisterium is an ongoing process; in some respects, it is still in its infancy.

The Synod of 2021-2023 is grounded in the Council's doctrine on the People of God, whose "condition is the dignity and freedom of the children of God, in whose heart the Holy Spirit dwells as in a temple" (Lumen Gentium 9). The Church that we are called to dream and build is a community of women and men drawn together in communion by the one faith, our common Baptism and the same Eucharist, in the image of God the Trinity: women and men who together, in the diversity of ministries and charisms received, actively participate in the establishment of the Kingdom of God, with the missionary impetus of bringing to all the joyful witness of Christ, the only Saviour of the world.

Benedict XVI had already affirmed that the "synodal dimension is constitutive of the Church: it consists of a coming together of every people and culture in order that they become one in Christ and walk together, following him, who said: "I am the way, and the truth, and the life" (Jn 14: 6)" (Angelus, Oct. 5, 2008). In a similar way, commemorating the 50th anniversary of the Synod's establishment, Pope Francis asserted that the path of synodality, "a constitutive dimension of the Church" and that it "is the path that God expects from the Church of the third millennium" (Oct. 17, 2015).

THANK YOU, BR. ADALBERT!

Brother Adalbert will soon be leaving us to return to Varroville to prepare for his Ordination on 14th December. So that everyone has an opportunity to wish him well and to thank him for his service to our community as Deacon over the past months, we will be holding a morning tea on SUNDAY 23 OCTOBER after the 9.30am Mass.

Please bring a plate of food to share for the morning tea. We hope to see Br. Adalbert back with us before Christmas in his future role of assistant priest. Please pray for him as he continues his preparation over the next two months. All welcome.

Notes: If you could give us a hand on the day, please contact Billie in the parish office.

THANK YOU for your generous donation to Catholic Mission. You are helping our missionaries in Ethiopia address malnutrition in vulnerable families. Your gift also supports similar missionary programs around the world. If you missed the opportunity last week, scan the QR code to make a donation. Should you be interested to help promote the work of Catholic Mission as a parish volunteer, then please email Francis Leong at director.cm@perthcatholic.org.au to discuss any ideas you might have.
