

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today's First Reading (Wis11:22 – 12:2) is a hymn of praise to God. The Lord is a lover of life who is not judgemental or vindictive but causes all things to be, and to flourish. This lovely sentence reminds us of God's patience and kindness "Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook people's sins so they can repent".

The Gospel (Lk 19:1-10) introduces us to Zacchaeus, a tax collector, which profession was despised for collaborating with the Romans and being rip-off merchants who lined their own pockets. The nameless self-righteous citizens ("they") form a barrier to keep the little man away from Jesus. They judge Zacchaeus and utterly reject him. He loses whatever dignity he had by running ahead of Jesus and then climbing a tree to better see him. Jesus undoubtedly sees the funny side of this and addresses him. Unlike the crowd, Zacchaeus is truly seeking salvation. Jesus talks to him and calls him by his name and invites himself to dine in the house of the man in the tree.

So, Zacchaeus gives hospitality to Jesus. This is immediately problematic for the crowd who mutter and murmur: 'He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner.' Jesus accepts the tax-collector just as he is and goes on to make one of the great declarations of the Gospel: 'Today salvation has come to this house' (v. 9). 'Salvation' is not something purely for the future. It begins here and now. Salvation is coming to know and experience the welcome and mercy of God. The Son of Man has not come to judge and condemn but to seek out and save the lost (v. 10). That is the whole point of his saving mission.

Salvation also brings justice not just to the individual but healing to the whole community. Zacchaeus commits to changing how he acts and compensating whoever he may have wronged. By his change of heart and attitude he becomes an agent of God's generous life-giving spirit.

Today, Jesus – and the Church in his name – seeks, finds and incorporates the excluded and the lost into the hospitality of God. Can we be 'at home' in the beloved community of those the Son of Man has sought out and saved? The Lord who knows the heart excludes no one.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL NOMINATIONS

Nominations for the positions on the Parish Pastoral Council are now open. The parish council consists of the parish priest together with parishioners elected by the parish community and those co-opted by the parish priest. The role of the council is to promote the Church's mission, to live and communicate the love, values and teaching of Christ in the world. The council shares in the responsibility for the ongoing life and development of the faith community, working together with parishioners to provide support for their efforts to live as followers of Christ.

Here in Morley parish, the people who make up our community have come from many, many different countries. To truly represent who we are, the parish pastoral council should reflect this diversity. You are invited to consider nominating yourself or someone who will be able to contribute to the work of promoting the church's mission here in Morley.

COME AND SEE - PARISH MEDITATION GROUP

Saturday 5th November From 10.30am to 3pm

At Infant Jesus Parish

Meditation is an ancient form of prayer, developed and used by monks in Egypt in the second and third centuries AD. Its aim is to bring the distracted mind to silence and stillness, and rest in the presence of God. Even in our modern busy lives, this is possible, and needed.

Our meditation group in Morley invites you to come along and try this form of prayer, which is simple and peaceful. This introductory course provides an opportunity to experience the practice of Christian meditation in a small group, to learn about its origin, and to discover its beauty as a form of prayer in our modern times.

The session is on Saturday, 5th November commencing at 10.30am and finishing at 3pm. Morning tea and lunch is provided. For catering purpose, please SMS Terry on 0429 482 921 or email Pedro at lion8@bigpond.net.au

Expressions of Interest for Enrolments at Infant Jesus School

The family is the first and most important influence in the development of religious faith in the child. Parents who enrol children at our school are asking us to share with them the responsibility of bringing up their children as Christians under the guidance of the teachings of the Catholic Church. The school supports parents in this important role.

Infant Jesus School welcomes expressions of interest for enrolments in all year levels from Pre-Kindergarten to Year Six. Please contact Infant Jesus School (Lucy) on 9276 1769 or visit the website www.infantjesus.wa.edu.au for info regarding an enrolment pack. #ExpectGreatThings
