

Dear brothers and sisters,

The First Reading (Ex 34:4-6, 8-9) has Moses dealing with God following Israel's idolatry with the Golden Calf (Exod 32). Will Israel regain its privileged status as the Lord's special people? Before Moses gets around to pleading with God for forgiveness and forbearance, he hears God's proclamation of who he is: 'The Lord, the Lord, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness' (v. 6). So, the God of the Old Testament is not a God of wrath and vengeance but the God of love and compassion.

In the Gospel of John, the actions, the words and the very personality of Jesus reflect the reality of God. There is an identity between Christ and God. In today's Gospel (Jn 3:16-18) God's mission to the world is not condemnation but to rescue us from bondage to sin and death and to draw all people into the communion of life and love which is God's very being. This is the great work of the Son. God's compassionate love is always shown in action.

The Second Reading (2Cor 13:11-13) consists of the concluding grace from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians prefaced by an exhortation to unity and peace in the community. Our life together should reflect the dynamic life of God through our equality, diversity and mutuality. The word 'grace' (Greek charis) basically refers to the gift in a person that renders her or him attractive. To pray that the 'grace of the Lord Jesus Christ' be with a community is to ask that each and every believer be captured by this presence of Christ. Secondly, there is the hope that we come to know God (the Father) primarily as a God of love. Thirdly, the grace of the Holy Spirit common to all who believe in Christ is the foundation of our community/communion. Belief in God as Trinity is then an invitation to a saving relationship.

While a fully developed theology of the Trinity took over 400 years of prayer and reflection on Christian experience, we find that Paul, in the earliest days, refers to God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The inner life of the Trinity is a dance of love marked by equality, difference, and mutuality. Our holiness is sharing that dynamic life of the Trinity.

The feast of the Holy Trinity calls us to contemplate and celebrate God's self-revelation in Christ, through the Spirit, as loving and deeply involved with humanity. It is a reminder of our values, identity and mission.

Blessings, Greg

CALLING YOU to a MINISTRY

LITURGICAL MINISTRIES DRIVE

Over the past few weeks you have been invited to consider joining a variety of liturgical ministries and people are still needed. Now you are encouraged to give your name and contact number to find out more. After each Mass this weekend, there will be someone for you to talk to regarding serving the liturgy in Morley in a particular ministry of your choice. It is a perfect way to make new friends and serve the community.

Alternatively leave your name with the parish office
Ph: 9276 8500 E: secretary@infantjesusparish.org.au

Don't ignore that call!

CONGRATULATIONS

We welcome our recently baptised little ones and pray that God will bless, guide and protect them— Marcus Romeo; Makayla Larkin; Evelina Yip; Rio Porter; Lennox Wright; Jordan Bodestyne; Christopher Doro; Gianni Ghita; Keenan Fitzpatrick; Maisie Dias and Ryan Lukan.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION FOR CHILDREN

Please pray for our parish children who will be confirmed by Archbishop Costelloe on Saturday 10 June

Annual Winter Appeal
24/25 June 2023

Dear Parishioners, once again the Morley/Dianella St Vincent de Paul Conference (Vinnies) will hold their annual Winter Appeal at all Masses on the weekend of the 24/25 June 2023. As in the past, you have generously contributed donations to help the poor, needy and homeless in our community to keep their families fed, clothed and warm during the cold winter months. This year, many people are having difficulty with never ending demands imposed on their budgets. Whatever you can afford to give when attending Mass that weekend will be greatly appreciated. Envelopes will be placed in the pews and members will be collecting funds in the foyer after Mass. May God give his blessing to all in our community. Gus Formato, President.
