

Dear sisters and brothers,

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit". This prayer leads us into the mystery we celebrate this Sunday, the Most Holy Trinity. The second letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians, we find one of the optional greetings used at the beginning of each Mass. This greeting is an excellent synthesis of the mystery of the Holy Trinity. "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you" (2 Cor. 13:14). The Solemnity of the Holy Trinity helps us to affirm our central truth and faith in One God: The Father (who creates), the Son (who redeems) and the Holy Spirit (who sanctifies, unifies, and reconciles).

In his teaching, Jesus gradually reveals to his disciples the mystery of being totally united with the Father. Although we cannot even begin to give a logical explanation for this, our faith enables us in some small measure to experience the presence of God. How this can happen is stated by St Augustine in a most beautiful passage from his "Confessions" (p. 211). "What do I love when I love my God?" he asks. Then he continues; "Not material beauty or beauty of a temporal order; not the brilliance of earthly light, so welcome to our eyes; not the sweet melody of harmony and song; not the fragrance of flowers, perfumes, and spices; not manna or honey; not limbs such as the body delights to embrace. It is not these that I love when I love my God. And yet, when I love him, it is true that I love a light of a certain kind, a voice, a perfume, a food, an embrace; but they are of the kind that I love in my inner self." "So, tell me something of my God," he asks. And loud and clear they answered, "God is he who made us."

The Holy Trinity is a life of communion to be lived, shared, and celebrated liturgically. Therefore, we need to go beyond talking about love, communion, sharing and putting that into practice by being instruments of reconciliation, mercy, and communion. Just a joke, the reason why God in creating us does not put us directly into heaven, is because if He did so, we would mess life up there! Our life here on earth is a time to practice our stewardship in concrete ways by sharing, healing, and living in communion with the people God has given us.

The central message may be summed up in three points. 1) The solemnity of the Holy Trinity is a model of life of communion in God to be lived and imitated; 2) We are challenged to be instruments of reconciliation, healing, and communion; 3) To be such instruments, we need to be nourished by prayer and scripture, for example in the family so we can grow into closer communion with one another.

IJ YOUTH & FAMILY
MASS

This Sunday 26 May
5pm in the parish centre
6pm Mass in the Church

IJ Youth INITIATIVE

Upon reflection how the youth initiative is going, we have decided to rename the fourth Sundays of the Month as the "Youth and Family Mass".

The emphasis is on families rather than just the youth. As such, we are encouraging young members of our family to join the choir.

The gathering will start one hour before Mass (5pm) rather than after Mass with some activities for young people. In addition, I will hold A Bible Study/Faith formation session for parents and anyone who would be interested concurrently. Bring along your questions and come early to Sunday Mass in you want to learn more about your faith and meet other young people and families.
