

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we have the parish children and two adults receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation and being fully initiated into the faith. This is a great day for our parish and I urge you to pray for all of the Candidates and their families—not just today but into the future. The young are the Church of tomorrow and they need the help of the Holy Spirit, and us all, to stay firm in their faith.

Perhaps you might choose a name from the stained glass “flames” around the windows of the church and pray for that child in your daily prayers. Who knows what a difference you might make in the life of that one child?

Next weekend we have the Enrolment Masses for First Communion and another group of parish families will begin their journey toward their child’s initiation further into the faith. Keep these families, too, in your prayers.

Also, next weekend, the Columbarium committee have prepared an information leaflet regarding the new Children and Infants Memorial; its purpose, who may use it, the reason for its dedication to St. Thérèse and so on. Please take one as you leave Mass next week and read it. Losing a child, through illness, accident, miscarriage or termination is always a great sadness, not only for the family concerned, but also for the whole community. The beautiful memorial which the Columbarium committee have arranged is a very fitting place of remembrance for our lost little ones. - Fr. Sunny

CONGRATULATIONS!

Please pray for all our Confirmation candidates who will be confirmed in our church this weekend by the Very Reverend Fr. Peter Whitely, V.G. The children and their families have been working hard to prepare, as have the two young women prepared by Fr. Sunny. May Jesus light their way and the Holy Spirit strengthen their steps as they continue their faith journey.

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness”

MARANATHA COURSE IN JULY

POPE FRANCIS: “MR POPE”/BISHOP OF ROME

Pope Francis has said he wants the church to be “of the poor, for the poor”. ‘Mr Pope’, as he jokingly calls himself, is going to bring out of the storeroom ‘things both new and old’. Can the church be known for love (more than some ‘disciplinary’ or ‘doctrinal’ matters)? Can the church pray with and for him, as requested from Day 1? Also is he going to get the active support and co-operation of church members?

Pope Francis: “Mr Pope”/Bishop of Rome

Presented by Fr Stephen Astill SJ on Wednesday, 9th of July at 7pm to 8:30pm for three weeks.

Sessions will be held in the Parish Centre at a cost of $20 person. Please register your interest on the sheet in the foyer, or contact the parish office on 9276 8500.

COLUMBARIUM GARDENS INSTALLATION OF CHILDREN AND INFANTS MEMORIAL

It was great to see many parishioners visiting the columbarium last weekend to view the new memorial. The committee will soon begin work on the surrounds to the memorial and are looking to have the memorial ready for an official unveiling by October 1st, the Feast day of St. Thérèse.

As you leave Mass today, the hospitality ministers will be handing out an information leaflet regarding the funding, intention and use of the memorial. Please take one home and read it. Queries regarding memorial plaques or niches can be directed to the Columbarium committee via the parish office on 92768500.

PLEASE NOTE that there is NO HOLY HOUR FOR VOCATIONS THIS WEEKEND SUNDAY 22 JUNE due to The Sacrament of Confirmation Masses

A group of parishioners who met for guided discussion during Lent, using The Lectio Divina method of prayer, has continued to meet up to Pentecost and will now be continuing to meet into the future. Anyone who may be interested to enquire about this group with a view to joining us is invited to contact either Pat Mahoney on 9275 2809 or Brendan Clifford on 9276 8336.

COMMUNION TO THE SICK AND HOUSEBOUND

If you know of anyone who is unable to attend Mass because of illness or advanced age, please do not hesitate to contact the parish office so that we may arrange for a Minister of the Eucharist to visit them on a regular basis.
