

Dear Parishioners,

I read during the week a new statistic, that 67% of Catholics regularly talk about their faith and feel comfortable doing so. This is good news, if a little surprising. We should all be glad to share the Good News about Jesus and what he has done for us. However, I wonder if 67% of Catholics could be said to have a good understanding of this faith, which they are happy to share!

Here at Morley, we have the privilege and the convenience of having the experts from Maranatha Centre for Adult Faith Formation come directly to us – yet not many of you take advantage of this great opportunity. Soon we have another course coming up: “On Earth as it is in Heaven: The Living Liturgy of the Church”. Here is an opportunity to explore what happens in the Mass and why with Sr. Margaret Scharf, who has studied extensively in this area. We should all be there, if we can. I would very much like to see an enthusiastic response to the invitation to hear Sr. Margaret speak. If you have not enrolled in a Maranatha course before, this could be a great unit to try.

I hope that you all enjoy this Father’s day with your families and with your memories of fathers no longer with us. – Fr. Sunny

How can you live your faith unless you understand it?
Can you really celebrate the Mass without knowing what it is you are celebrating?

Get to know what it means to be Catholic. We are offering this excellent course, run by Maranatha Centre for Adult Faith Formation— courses meant to engage and challenge adult minds without the pressure of homework or exams!

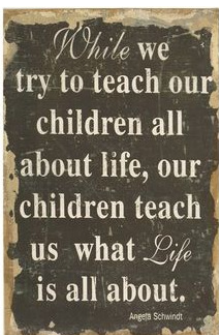

“On Earth as it is in Heaven: The Living Liturgy of the Church”

Presented by Sr. Margaret Scharf, OP.

Margaret is a lively speaker, a liturgist, internationally-renowned composer, musician, spiritual director and teacher. Many of the songs she composed have been used in parishes throughout Australia and the US. She hopes to lead us through the story of worship in the Catholic tradition, the spirituality and theology of the Eucharist, the Prayer of the Church and other devotions. She will also offer some insights into the thread of music which weaves itself through the whole story of the liturgy.

Why would you not want to sign up for this course? Do it today when you leave Mass! The list is in the foyer on the A-frame board.

HAPPY FATHER’S DAY!

Wishing all our Dad’s a wonderful day. May God bless your work in raising your children—for the work well done and the work still in progress! May our fathers who have gone before us pray for those who are still guiding their children through life.

Fr. Sunny, Fr. Tadgh, Fr. John and all the Carmelite friars wish to sincerely thank everyone who offered their sympathies, attended the requiem Mass and vigil and helped in any way after the passing into eternal life of their brother, James. Br. James was such an integral part of our Carmelite and parish community, having served here faithfully for 52 years.

He is fondly remembered by many adults who have grown up in the parish, where Br. James was just "always there". He has been a good friend, a faithful servant and the best kind of teacher - one who taught by example, rather than words. He will be sadly missed, but will not soon pass out of our memories.

MISSION PARTNERS MORLEY

I have made five trips to India over the past twenty six years, fell in love with the people and raise funds for the poorest of the poor whose extreme poverty is always with me. For the benefit of new comers to our parish, funds are raised by myself, through primary level, home tutoring English lessons; plus funds raised from the establishment of Mission Partners Morley in our parish since 1988.

Photos and details of two renovated huts in India under the supervision of Marthandam Integrated Development Society, a social welfare organisation similar to Centrecare in Perth, are now on display on the back wall of the church foyer under the sign "Social Justice". Cardboard windows have been replaced with glass, sand floors cemented and re-roofing completed so the renovated huts are liveable, thanks to the generosity of Australians. The "before" and "after" renovation photos speak a thousand words so please make a point of checking them out.

Donation envelopes are available on the right hand side notice board in the foyer, marked "Mission Partners Morley" and can be placed in the weekend mass collection bags.

The cost of renovating a hut of one or two rooms on average is around $700.00 to $1,200.00. Small donations from relatives and a recipient's input of labour, when they sometimes carry supplies on their heads to a village building site, plus helping with clearing, painting etc., reduce the cost to around $800.00. Families at the lowest level of subsistence are benefiting and are most grateful for this hand-up giving them dignity and a chance to improve their difficult situations. Sincere thanks, on their behalf, to all who have donated to this project.
