

Dear brothers and sisters,

The First Reading (Acts 2:1-11) lists Jewish pilgrims from diverse regions who hear the Spirit-filled apostles each in their own language. They are a foretaste of the mission of the Church. The Church speaks in many languages the same Good News that comes from faith in Christ crucified and risen. Pentecost is the beginning of the Church. The Spirit which rested solely upon Jesus during his own life (Lk 4:14, 17-19) now, in accordance with his promise (Lk 24:49; Acts 1:8a), is given to those chosen to carry on his mission 'to the ends of the earth' (Acts 1:8b).

The Church is called to proclaim the Gospel to new generations of people from diverse cultures. We are called to be hospitable. We need to have open hearts, open minds and open arms to welcome all manner of people. The modern adjective for this is 'inclusive'. The more ancient word is 'catholic'. The Catholic church is called to be home for people of whatever language, ability or disability or age. It is not good for us to have ministers of hospitality at the entrance of the church if we also have people who take it upon themselves to tell parents with young children that their children are not welcome. This is a counter-witness. In the South-Western Sydney parish where I grew up, Fr Landers, our elderly parish priest, always welcomed children no matter how noisy they might be. It was a kind of speaking in tongues and part of being a lively and joyful parish.

The Gospel (Jn 20:19-23) in accord with the earlier Christian tradition (see 1 Cor 15:45), locates the imparting of the Spirit with the resurrection and exaltation of the Lord. So, it is on the evening of 'the First Easter Sunday that Jesus appears to the disciples, makes clear his identity, and imparts to them the 'Peace' that overcomes fear. He then gives the Spirit to empower them to take up the mission of reconciliation that he received from the Father. Jesus died as the 'Lamb who takes away the sins of the Lord' (Jn 1:29, 36; 19:36). The capacity to reconcile in God's name is now in our hands. In this spirit and in the Holy Spirit that today we pray for Christian Unity.

—Blessings, Greg

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2022
29 May - 5 June 2022

"We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship him"

The theme for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in 2022 was chosen by the Middle East Council of Churches "We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship" (cf Matthew 2:2) More than ever, in these difficult times, we need a light that shines in the darkness and that light, Christians proclaim, has been manifested in Jesus Christ.

One only Holy Spirit of Father and Son
in whom all are baptized,
one giver of many gifts, one tree of many fruits
one speaker of every tongue, renew in our day
the wonders of Pentecost, grant that people of every race and nation
may understand one another, and as one, proclaim the praises of God.

Grant that all may be one as you, Spirit,
with the Father and the Son are one God, one Lord.

Grant unity to the Body of Christ;

grant unity to the human family.

Sole breath of every living thing, may all be one who,
in you, live and move and have their being.

What happens at Pentecost?

In the Christian tradition, Pentecost is the celebration of the person of the Holy Spirit coming upon the Apostles, Mary, and the first followers of Jesus, who were gathered together in the Upper Room.

A "strong, driving" wind filled the room where they were gathered, and tongues of fire came to rest on their heads, allowing them to speak in different languages so that they could understand each other. It was such a strange phenomenon that some people thought the Christians were just drunk - but Peter pointed out that it was only the morning, and said the phenomenon was caused by the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit also gave the apostles the other gifts and fruits necessary to fulfill the great commission - to go out and preach the Gospel to all nations. It fulfills the New Testament promise from Christ (Luke 24:46-49) that the Apostles would be "clothed with power" before they would be sent out to spread the Gospel.—Catholic New Agency

HOW TO LIVE IN THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT DAILY DEVOTIONAL

Commencing Monday June 6, after Pentecost Sunday, join people across the country and around the world for a short, practical, and inspiring Daily Devotional video that you will receive in your inbox every morning to help you live in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Presented by Bruce Downes, known as The Catholic Guy, you will be inspired, refreshed, and renewed through these powerful and prayer daily reflections.

The Daily Devotionals are FREE, and you can sign up here: BruceDownes.org/HolySpiritDaily or go to our website BruceDownes.org

Fr Tadgh's biographies of St Raphael Kalinowski and Ven. Hermann Cohen— $14.95 each

Both St Raphael Kalinowski and Ven. Hermann Cohen had drama-filled lives - Raphael spent 10 years hard labour in Siberia, and Hermann was an international concert pianist in Paris, who abandoned the concert scene to convert to Catholicism and become a Carmelite priest. Fr Tadgh's booklets on Scripture and Carmelite Spirituality are also still available.
