

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today we celebrate the Christian understanding of God, the Holy Trinity. God is an outgoing, active communion of love. We know Jesus spoke of God in intimate terms as his father. He invited his followers to share that trusting experience of God. After his death and resurrection, the disciples were energised by the creative power of God, called the 'Spirit' (i.e. the life-breath of God). So, while keeping the Jewish belief in one God, the disciples experience three persons who draw them into the divine communion of love. This transforms them giving them the spiritual energy to be instruments of God's saving outreach of love into the world. The prayers of the Mass are addressed to the Father, through Christ and in the Spirit.

The early Christians found patterns in the Wisdom writings of the Old Testament that provided a foretaste of this understanding. Wisdom is portrayed as acting in a collaborative way with God. So, today's First Reading (Prv 8) is a poetic evocation of divine Wisdom as a kind of feminine assistant in God's work of creation, delighting in all things, though especially in human beings. The Christian tradition picks up this personal outreach of God in creation and applies it to Jesus and the Spirit.

The Second Reading (Rom 5:1-5) Paul tells us that we are at 'peace with God' and have 'access to the grace in which we stand'. While we are part of a suffering world 'hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us' (v. 5). God's love for us is experienced through the gift of the Spirit poured into the depth of our being. This experience of being loved by God is our most personal experience of God as Trinity.

In our Gospel (Jn 16:12-15) Jesus looks to the future when he will no longer be physically present. The intimacy of the relationship between himself and the Father will continue through the gift of the Spirit. The 'truth' which the Spirit communicates in and through Jesus is that 'God is love' (1 Jn 4:7, 16).

COVID-19 and OUR CELEBRATION of LITURGY

While the W.A. Government has removed the COVID restrictions there is still a lot of COVID around. As your health and safety is our first concern we will move cautiously. So, for now we will continue safe hygiene practices (the use of face masks and hand sanitisers) and social distancing. The Sign of Peace will continue to be given without physical contact. As well, the Archdiocese has not changed its recommendation that all church ministers be vaccinated.

—Blessings, Greg

Bible Study with Bro. Adalbert Every Thursday at 7pm in the parish library

We have a new face leading our regular Thursday evening Bible Study. Come and join us, no booking necessary. The evening will start with a reflective lectio divina style prayer and then the reading of the scripture.

Fr Tadgh's biographies of St Raphael Kalinowski and Hermann Cohen—$14.95 each

Both St Raphael Kalinowski and Ven. Hermann Cohen had drama-filled lives - Raphael spent 10 years hard labour in Siberia, and Hermann was an international concert pianist in Paris, who abandoned the concert scene to convert to Catholicism and become a Carmelite priest. Also, Fr Tadgh's booklets on Scripture and Carmelite Spirituality are also still available.

PLENARY COUNCIL UPDATE

The four-year journey of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia will reach the second - and final - assembly in July 2022. On 1st of June, the Framework for Motions document was published. The document contains 30 motions across eight mission areas that the 277 members—clergy, religious and laity, will vote next month. You can view the Framework for Motions document online at plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au
